Supervision Controls

The Executive Director may receive instructions from the Board of Commissioners (BOC) or other governing or regulatory agency. The Executive Director routinely works without the direction of a supervisor and is free to develop methods, deadlines, priorities, and/or objectives. When instructions are received, they are usually specific and detailed because they apply to unusual and rarely occurring situations. Other instructions are usually in the form of BOC directives or policy statements. Normally, the Executive Director makes independent decisions pertaining to situations not covered by specific guidelines, but the BOC or other employees are consulted in serious or unusual circumstances. The Executive Director's work is reviewed for progress and achievement of goals.

Under normal conditions, the Executive Director makes general assignments to Department Directors, specifying priorities, deadlines, and objectives. The Executive Director infrequently makes specific assignments to executive office staff. Assignments to executive office staff will include what is to be done, deadlines, quality, quantity, and priority. The Executive Director supervises professionals, managerial, and clerical employees and monitors the work of multiple work units that perform related and/or unrelated work.

Guidelines

Guidelines followed by the Executive Director include published laws, regulations, handbooks, notices, contracts, agreements, codes, ordinances, policy directives from the Board of Commissioners, and technical assistance from HUD. Upon personal initiative, the Executive Director obtains informal guidance and assistance from other agencies, professional organizations, and housing-related groups.

The Executive Director performs duties by applying the basic principles of housing Agency management and uses independent judgment in many decision-making situations. Routine decisions pertaining to the operations of the Agency, handling of funds, and personal matters, are provided with specific guidelines in the form of internal operating policies and procedures, and federal, state and local laws and regulations. The Executive Director is periodically monitored for compliance with existing guidelines by the BOC and HUD.

Contact with the public serves multiple purposes including: giving or gaining information, planning, coordinating, and advising, motivating, influencing, directing persons or groups, and justifying, defending, negotiating, and resolving significant matters. Contact may occur in uncooperative, antagonistic, or unresponsive situations.

Education and Experience
